Minnelli Bros. Here Fair Week

There are two classes of newspaper readers that predominate. First, the man who likes to and hasn't time; second, the man that does not like to, and has time. For the benefit of both, following is some rapid-fire information concerning the Minnelli Bros. Mighty Dramatic company, under canvas. Fine new outfit; 40 clever people; all new plays for the engagement; all new specialties and concerts. Engagement commences Monday, Sept. 13, under monster tent located on the Wood Co. lot, W. Liberty street, with doors open at 7 o'clock; curtain goes up at 8 promptly. Prices: 10 and 20 cents; ladies admitted Monday night only for 15 cents.

Opening play, the great comedy drama: "Lena Rivers." Is it good? Great! Four acts; five great specialties; three solid hours. Will the tent leak? No! Performance rain or shine. Is this the only week that the big show will play Medina this year? Yes! This will be the only week. Don't forget the opening night is Monday, Sept. 13. —Advertisement.

SCHOOL REUNION

Although Saturday, the day selected for the Strong's Corner's school reunion, was not an ideal picnic day, 85 sat down to a magnificent dinner, after which the president, Chester Lindley, called a business meeting. The following officers were elected: Pres., Chester Lindley; vice-pres., William Foley; sec-treas., Bee M. Foley. We then listened to some very interesting remarks from Mrs. D. Tillotson; Mrs. Mary Reed of Medina and Mrs. C. Z. Ganyard of Granger, all former teachers of this district. Then followed a short literary program. The rest of the day was devoted to renewing old acquaintances and forming new ones. All voted it a day well spent and hoped to meet again the first Saturday in Sept., 1916.

By the Secretary.
